

The BIG Book of

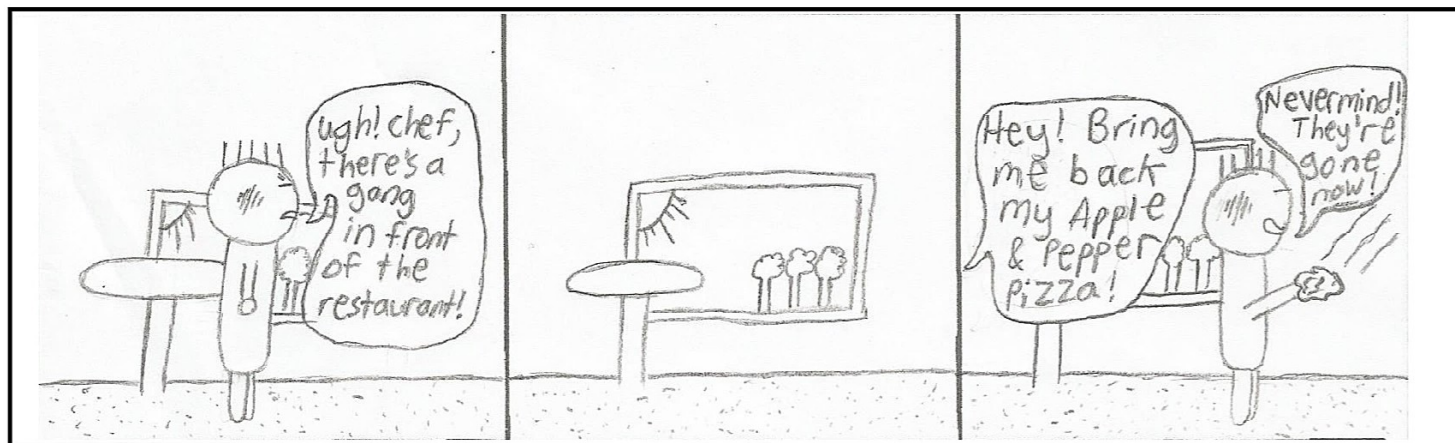

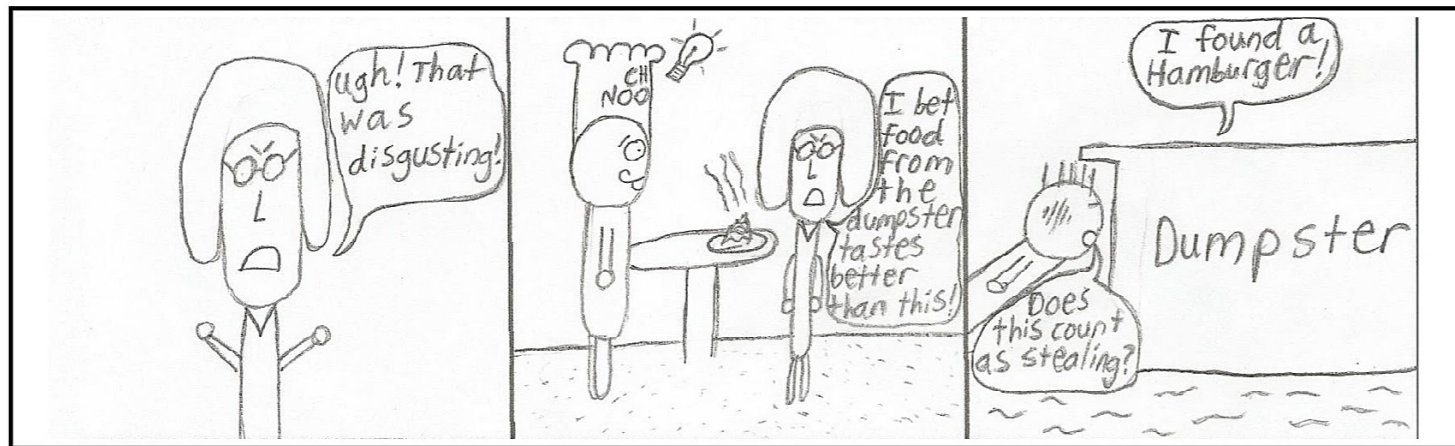

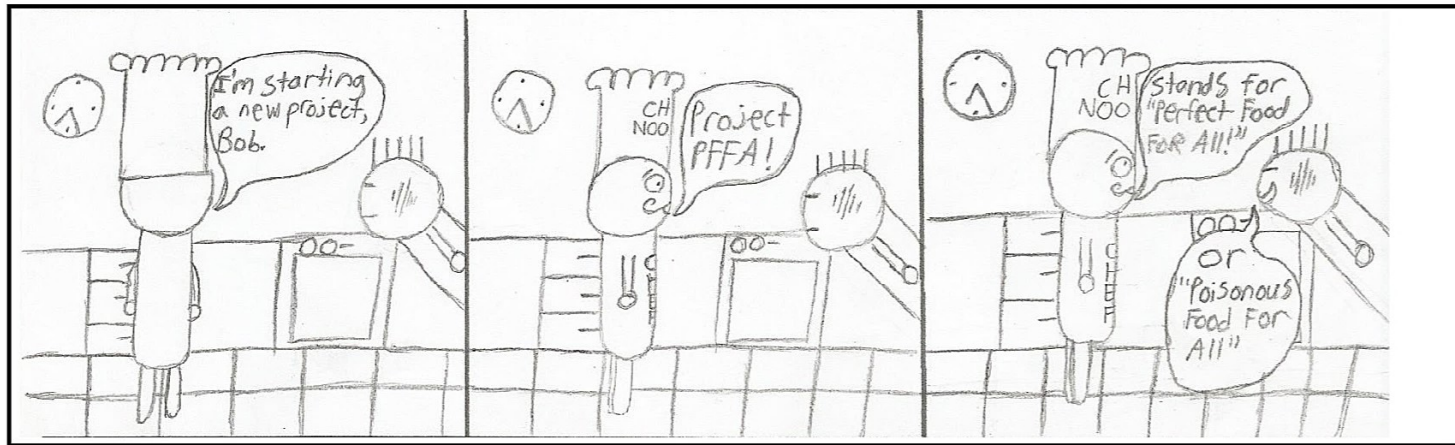

Chef Noodle

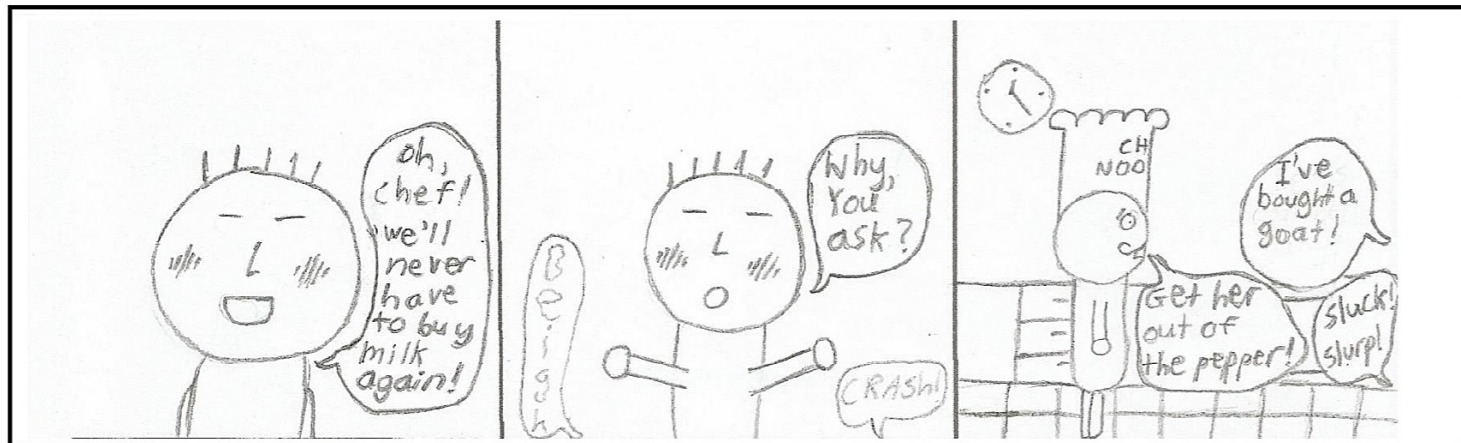

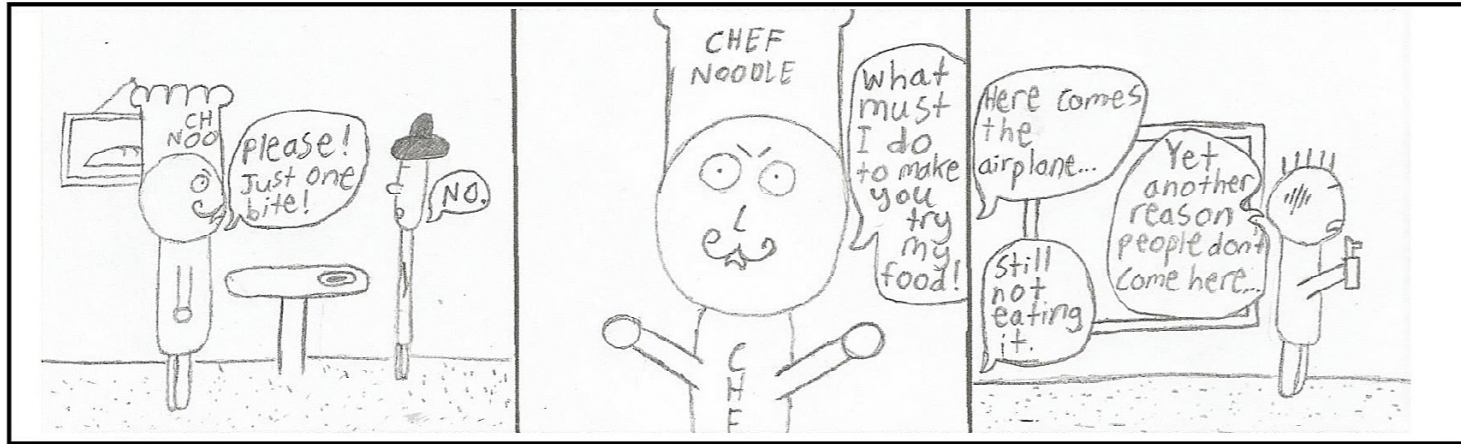

The background features a yellow and orange diagonal striped pattern at the top. Below this is a light blue rectangular area containing the title. The bottom of the image is a black and white comic strip. The comic strip shows a chef in a kitchen. A speech bubble from the chef says 'The sky is usually blue.' Another speech bubble from a character says 'IS it one of them?'. A third speech bubble from a character says 'Maybe I should do these dishes..'. There are also some other characters and objects in the comic strip, like a character with a speech bubble saying 'Calm down' and another saying 'No.'.
